Next month, El Grito enthusiasts will enjoy some of the world's top Latin music headliners, festive events and authentic cuisine within the destination. Each year, an impressive array of diverse international and domestic visitors come to Las Vegas to celebrate El Grito in an extraordinary way. The Forum Shops at Caesars Palace will partner with InVegas Magazine to kick off festivities with an official opening ceremony on September 15 at 7:30 p.m.

The ode to El Grito will start with a Mexican Consul bell ringing, followed by strolling mariachis and folkloric dancers. Guests can also qualify for special offerings from retailers within The Forum Shops by visiting the InVEGAS hospitality and welcome desks, where they will receive an official wristband. This event is free and open to the public.

On Sept. 16, Mayweather Promotions Presents Fight Night, featuring Ishe Smith vs. Frank Galarza. Fueling the El Grito excitement, the square-off will take place at The Chelsea inside The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas. To complement the destination's top-notch entertainment offerings, Las Vegas boasts an array of premier culinary experiences.
